CHIVALRY MAKES A COMEBACK

In Theaters Valentine's Day 2015

This Valentine's Day, Celebrate a Godly Love Story

Leading up to Valentine's Day 2015, we are going to be inundated with commercials and online chatter about why we have to see Fifty Shades of Grey, a Hollywood film about sex and abuse. Then there's old fashioned, which is also coming to theaters on Valentine's Day weekend.

Daring to encourage moviegoers to find something beyond today's hook-up culture that leaves people longing for so much more, old fashioned is a faith-based movie that inspires a genuine hunger for godly romance and healthy relationships.

old fashioned is a heartwarming love story about Clay, a former frat boy whose relationship with Christ impacts the way he looks at life and relationships, and Amber, a free-spirited woman who has felt the pain of dating relationships. Together, they attempt the impossible: an old-fashioned courtship in contemporary America!

What You Can Do

NOW is the time to start planning to maximize the impact old fashioned can have in your church and your community. Start by purchasing an old fashioned showtime on Valentine's Day weekend and creatively utilize the tickets ...

- ♥ Plan a Relationship series leading up to Valentine's Day—help people see God's design for relationships
